

November 2019

LEARNER SPOTLIGHT: NIN SOON YI

Meet Nin, an 83-year-old learner at the Chinatown YMCA computer lab, and find out how his new computer skills are helping his wife's knees!

NO PLACE LIKE HOME: SENIORS GET COMPUTER TRAINING

Through CTN's program located at affordable housing sites, older people living at the George W. Davis Senior Residence are now receiving computer training. Everyone who completes 8 hours of training will receive a tablet of their own to use at home. Read more about the popular new learning program here.

LEARNER SPOTLIGHT: JOYCE YEeping JUNG WONG

Let us introduce you to Joyce, another eager learner at the Chinatown YMCA, who is so keen to learn new computer skills that she travels over an hour each way to attend class! Read about her on the CTN blog.

SUNNYVALE PARENTS ENJOY NEW DIGITAL LITERACY PROGRAM

CTN is partnering with the City of Sunnyvale to help up to 650 parents of kids at 5 elementary schools get up to speed with using computers. Now that many schools are using online tools to both teach children and communicate with parents, this is a vital program for many. Read more about the program and the inaugural class at the Ellis Elementary School here.
