COMMUNITY TECHNOLOGY network news

Transforming lives through digital literacy.

May 2017

Announcing the Winners of Digital Leaders Awards 2017

Do you have your tickets for the Digital Leaders Awards? If not, it's not too late! Join us on May 10, 2017 at Twitter HQ in San Francisco to celebrate the contributions of 8 amazing digital literacy champions, the individuals and organizations who are making a difference to digital inclusion in the Bay Area. Click here to find out who will be receiving awards, and come to the event for some feel-good fun, good food, and fine wine: Click here for tickets.

Three Cheers for Volunteers!

April 23-29 was National Volunteer Week, and CTN seized the opportunity to celebrate the heroes of its Digital Literacy Corps who dedicate their spare time helping promote digital literacy in our communities. Meet the very special volunteers who went home with this year's coveted awards.

"I Can Teach!"

When our volunteers go out into the community, they are not simply helping people learn basic computer skills—they are learning something too! Find out what Ready, Set, Connect! participant Shauna McQueen has discovered during her RSC internship so far.

"Life Got Wider": New Photo Exhibit Explores the Online Lives of Seniors

"Life Got Wider" is an exhibition of photos and stories of digital inclusion that will open on May 8 at the San Francisco Public Library as part of Digital Inclusion Week. Sharing experiences of older adults whose lives have been positively affected by learning to use a computer, the exhibit will run through July.

Partner Spotlight: Dr. George W. Davis Senior Center

Dr. George W. Davis Senior Center is the new kid on the SF Connected block, having opened its doors as recently as last August. Since then, CTN's volunteers have been helping new computer users get connected through the Comcast Internet Essentials program. Read more about the digital literacy program here.

Give the gift of digital inclusion to someone in need.

Community Technology Network
1390 Market Street, Suite 200, San Francisco, CA 94102